CONCEPT MOCKUPS

This document is designed to help give some context to concepts being considered and to help make a decision on a direction to pursue. The content, copy, design, and “feel/playfulness” will be refined after a concept is chosen. Further background on the strengths and weaknesses of each concept will be discussed verbally. Care should be taken not to solely be swayed by the appearance of a concept. Some concepts may appear more attractive due to the difficulty of presenting in high fidelity (training is an example of this).
